Bodong Panchen Chogle Namgyal (1376-1451) was one of the greatest minds to appear in Tibet. His four Denyi Dupa collections comprise magnificent compendia of tantric knowledge as known in the first half of the 15th century. In a way, the Denyi Dupa Gyepa, which forms the greatest majority of these 137 volumes, is an early Tengyur with writings by Tibetan authors. The scanning of these volumes of the Denyi Dupa collections was undertaken under a cooperative agreement with the Ven Doboomb Rinpoche of Tibet House New Delhi, the original publisher. Tibet House hopes to reprint the Bodong texts in a new reorganized edition. This project is still in process. 137 volumes.

- ▶ rin chen gter mdzod chen mo : a reproduction of the stod-lun mtshur-phu redaction of 'jam-mgon kon-sprul's great work on the unity of the gter ma traditions of tibet, with supplemental texts from the dpal-spuns redaction and other manuscripts

[W20578]

The first of the five great treasuries (dzo) of the author. The enlarged 111 volume anthology of all of the textual revelations (terma) of the visionary teachers of the past arranged for convenient initiations and instructions by Jamgon Kongtrul the Great (1813-1899). This edition is based on the Tsurpu edition as supplemented with blockprints from Palpung and other great monasteries of Kham at the order of H.H. Dilgo Kyentse Rinpoche. 111 volumes.
